

2024-2025 Workshops

September 16, 2024 Workshop — Introduction to our year long philanthropic project, needlepoint Hospice Hearts, presented by Mindy McMahon. Our guild will participate in this project to support the Hospice efforts in hospitals in and around Kansas City, Kansas. Details can be found in 2019 Jan. Feb. issue of Needlepoint Now. No finishing is required and if you prefer to cross stitch that is acceptable as long as your finished design is the same size as the needlepoint design.

Supply List — bring needlepoint supplies, tacks and four 8-inch frames

October 21, 2024 Workshop — Participants will take home their uniquely created 3 Dimensional Soft Needle Sculpting Doll using kit supplies of sewn body parts, hair, stuffing and tulle to decorate the doll.

Supply List — basic sewing supplies (needles, threads, scissors)

November 18, 2024 Workshop — Tammy will teach us how to create a sculptural felt flower brooch. Select your preferred color palette from Tammy's array of natural wool roving fibers, and be guided through the layering and wet felting process to create the petals. Assemble your petals using the provided felting needle. <https://www.tlddesigns.com/>

Supply List — bring your magnifying glasses, fine point scissors, hand needles, and a small selection of beads, buttons, feathers and embroidery threads

No December program/workshop

January 20, 2025 Workshop — Helpful gadgets we all can't live without. Please bring your favorite stitching gadget to highlight. Independent session to continue working or finishing your Master Embroidery Academy Project, or any project of your choice.

Supply List — Gadget to share and stitching materials of your choice

February 17, 2025 Workshop — The Orphan Annie cross stitch design that Kathleen created is inspired by a brief thought of what if Annie had been an orphan at the Bristol School? The design incorporates the layout of Annie Matilda Moss and some motifs of Amelia the Bristol, to make something new and useful for today's stitcher that can be personalized with your initials and year of completion.

Supply List — basic cross stitch supplies (needles, threads, scissors) as well as any magnification device and light you normally use

March 17, 2025 Workshop — Bridget's workshop is creating an embroidered bear of fox that finishes in a hoop. <https://igotyouinstitches.com/pages/about>
